"Evenu Šalom Alejhem"

The musical score consists of four staves of music in common time, with a key signature of one flat. The lyrics are written below each staff. The illustrations show four people in traditional Jewish attire (men in tallitot and women in shawls) standing in a row. The first illustration shows them with their hands clasped in front. The second illustration shows them with their hands held up near their faces. The third illustration shows them with their hands clasped in front again. The fourth illustration shows them with their hands held up near their faces.
